Need to know two weeks before hand if we want to go forward. They do brewery tours but only on Saturday's. It was discussed that maybe we do a family picnic instead of adult night. That way families would be more likely to come.

2) Teacher appreciation for May 7-11. All teachers and Ea's will be sent a form to fill out. IT will ask they following questions: Fav Color (Monday), Favorite Treat (Tuesday), Favorite beverage (Thur), Class supply (Friday) Wed will be a thank you note/card. List will be sent home via email, paper and Facebook to families. The list will have ALL teachers on it as a student's favorite teacher may not be their current one. Notes will go out to families MAY 2nd. Joanna to see if Sue will also email list and put on school Facebook as well. PTO Will supply Donuts to Elementary teachers on May 7th, and Sloppy Joes May 11th for a lunch.

4) Volunteer appreciation: Kristina did some checking and found drawstring bags. For 100 of them online cost would be $157.90 (made in the USA). It was asked to check with local places before ordering. Kristina will check with Julie at Northwoods (does our homecoming shirts), along with GLS Promotions and TeeHive. She will do that and report back via email what is found. The bag will have the words Pillager Huskies and a paw. Inside the bags will be thank you card/note from classes. When checking with the Teehive, she will ask about Teehive tours. Kristina made a motion to set a max budget of $250, Amy second motion, all were in favor.

5) Janitor, school bus, office staff, cook appreciation for May: We will do trays at the May meeting. We will drop trays off at the bus garage (Kristina can as she drives by each morning), and then see if teachers/or Mr. Smith will deliver to the others for us. We will also try to do another one August 6th with money being raise to help with classroom supplies.
